

Good Driver Discount

The good driver discount is available to Assurance Insurance auto customers who have had no major driving violations and no at-fault accident claims during the past two years. Note that all driving history will be verified at the time this discount is processed. The initial discount is 6%, and increases 2% every consecutive year that the above terms are met, for a maximum of 20% discount.